

Mildred Jackson

It is with sadness that we announce the passing of Mildred Jackson on January 1, 2023. Her husband George had died many years ago and she missed him a great deal. Mildred had just turned 90 in November and was still a vibrant and caring lady, much loved by her daughter Pauline and son-in-law Adrian, and by her many friends and neighbours. She missed her siblings in England who could no longer come to visit her.

Mildred loved to play bridge, do her jigsaw puzzles and her needlepoint. She was very accomplished at anything she attempted.

Mildred tried to look on the bright side of life, and made those around her feel better for it. She would often say “old age isn’t for sissies”, and she was certainly no sissy. She lived a full and wonderful life and will be greatly missed.

In lieu of flowers, Mildred suggested donations to The Kidney Foundation.
